

Cloud Security Alliance (CSA) Corporate Membership Prospectus

Mission statement

To promote the use of best practices for providing security assurance within Cloud Computing, and provide education on the uses of Cloud Computing to help secure all other forms of computing.

CSA Activities

Educational outreach via industry and online events

Customized CSA educational events

Research of cloud computing security assurance issues

Maintenance of CSA website, blogs, newsletters, social networking sites and other communication media in support of educational initiatives

Organizational IRS Status. 501(c)6 not-for-profit corporation

Corporate/Organizational Membership Terms & Benefits

Fees. Membership fees are $10,000 USD on an annual basis.

Logos & Company mention. Company logo, name and URL to be listed on members page and company name to be listed on CSA published research.

Advisory Council. Company receives one seat in the solution provider advisory council, to provide solution provider guidance into CSA strategic initiatives. Separate committees are maintained for marketing and subject matter experts.

CSA Logo Usage. Member can use CSA corporate member logo on its own marketing materials.

Event Attendance. Company receives complimentary attendance to all CSA educational events.

Targeted Research & Educational Initiatives. Member may propose research initiatives and related projects to be conducted under the auspices of the CSA, which will be "Co-Branded" Member-CSA research (Additional fees may apply for the research costs, depending upon the specific initiative)

For more information, contact Jim Reavis at jreavis@cloudsecurityalliance.org