

Doubling was established in 2014 to provide simple and friendly cloud solutions in the relationship between public administration and citizens. In particular, we've designed and released a platform called votarePA able to do vote operations in cloud and security way with few click. Some public administrations have already chosen us and in pandemic time, to have similar instruments it greatly helps to maintenance democracy institutions.